

BREAKING NEWS

Michael Jackson Impersonator, Edward Moss, tagged for the upcoming shows in Asia and Canada

December 2009

Actor and performer, Edward Moss, has been performing as The King Of Pop since 1996 and has recently experienced a high demand for his appearances around the world. Since the untimely death of Jackson, millions of Michael Jackson fans are heading to venue's around the globe to catch this incredible entertainers Tribute show and there is no end in sight.

Moss has performed all over the globe appearing as the pop singer on stage, television and in films. He has appeared on "Mad TV" "Politically Incorrect," "The Steve Harvey Show" and "Nip/Tuck." His film credits include "Scary Movie 3 and 4 and "Don't Be Scared"

He has also appeared in numerous commercials, music videos and stage shows in Las Vegas, including the Bette Midler Millennium Concert, Carnival Cabaret in Lake Tahoe and the CopyKatz Celebrity Revue at the CopyKatz Showroom-Downtown Palm Springs, owned and operated by Elyse Del Francia.

Edward Moss was selected out of a handful of considerations for the lead in the re-creation of the Michael Jackson molestation trial aired worldwide on E! Entertainment and Sky News in Europe.

"Edward Moss brought experience and skill to the role of Michael Jackson," said Jeff Shore, Senior Vice President of Production, E! Networks. "All the components of our production, from casting to the recreation of the courtroom set, were vital to our re-enactment series of The Michael Jackson Trial, which was one of the most memorable court cases in history.

Simon Bucks, Sky's Associate Editor, commented, "We were delighted that Edward Moss had agreed to read Michael Jackson's words. "As well as having a striking resemblance to Michael Jackson, Edward also had the acting ability to accurately portray him on a daily basis for Sky News and Sky One."

Said Edward Moss, "This is my biggest challenge to date and I am aware that my portrayal will be followed by millions every day on E!, Sky News and Sky One."

Edward Moss is represented by Elyse Del Francia Entertainment Company out of Rancho Mirage, California.

www.michaeljacksontoo.com

Contact: Elyse Del Francia (760) 770-6611 / (702) 809-0716